A Word from our President

I hope that everyone is having a productive summer. For those of you who attended either the National conference in Washington D.C. and/or the International AREUEA conference in Milan, thank you for your participation. I would especially like to thank Leah Brooks, Michael Eriksen, and Abdullah Yavas for their work in organizing the National conference. This is the first time that a blind review process has been used for the National Conference. I would also like to compliment Lauren Lambie Hanson and her committee for coordinating the WREN breakfast as well as Morris Davis, Karen Pence, Gilles Duranton and Lynn Fisher for their work on our new Code of Conduct. For the National conference next year (2020), we will be moving across the street to the Fairmont Hotel. We have Marsha Courchane to thank for facilitating this. Marsha is stepping down as our Executive Vice President (EVP).

The AREUEA Executive committee will be meeting shortly to consider her replacement from among candidates who responded to our RFP. We have also sent out an RFP for an Executive Director of AREUEA. Applications are due on November 15, 2019. The Executive Director differs from the EVP. Currently, Travelink functions in the capacity of The Executive Director. The Executive Director, as an Independent Contractor, may work alone, or through another institution, such as a real estate center at a university.

With respect to the International conference, heartfelt appreciation goes out to Gianluca Marcato and the local organizing committee consisting of Massimo Guidolin, Giacomo Morri, Marco Percoco, Milena Petrova. Thanks also to Siqi Zheng for her efforts in coordinating the 2019 Asian Real Estate conference in Shenzhen.

Congratulations to the editors of Real Estate Economics, Brent Ambrose, Abdullah Yavas, and Sumit Agarwal for increasing our impact factor. Brent has announced that Sumit Agarwal is stepping down as editor due to his new professional commitments. Wenlan Qian has graciously agreed to serve out Sumit's remaining term.

Me ka `oiā`i`o (with sincerity)

2020 AREUEA-ASSA Annual Conference

January 3-5, San Diego, California

The Annual Conference is in conjunction with meetings of the Allied Social Science Associations (ASSA) with approximately 55 associations in related disciplines over a three-day period with an average attendance of 13,000. AREUEA organizes twenty-three sessions during the three-day conference, in which selected participants report on research in progress or recently completed. Click HERE for more information.

AREUEA 33rd Annual Doctoral Poster Session

January 2, 2020, San Diego, California

We invite doctoral students to submit their research for the upcoming AREUEA Doctoral Poster session in San Diego. Submissions will be accepted online from August 1 through October 4, 2019. Additional information will be available soon on our website, www.areuea.org.

Doctoral students whose research proposals are accepted must be present during the session and reception on Thursday, January 2, 2020 where they will display their research on a poster and be available to discuss their doctoral work.

All AREUEA members and Ph.D. students registered for the ASSA Conference are encouraged to attend this event as a show of support to all the student awardees and become acquainted with their insightful research.

Real Estate Economics Impact Factor

I am writing with good news. The 2018 Journal Citation Report, which includes the Impact Factor and ISI subject category rankings for all indexed titles, has been released by Clarivate Analytics. The two- and five-year Impact Factors for 2018 are listed in the table below along with the new category rankings. Your journal homepage on Wiley Online Library will be updated soon to reflect the new number.

There was an increase in Real Estate Economics' Impact Factor from 2017 to 2018. Congratulations on this accomplishment!
