Martin J. Whitman School of Management
Faculty Position in Real Estate

The Finance Department, Whitman School of Management at Syracuse University invites applications for a full time tenure track position in Real Estate at the rank of Assistant Professor beginning in mid-August 2018. We are looking for a candidate with a proven research interest in Real Estate, and at the intersection of Real Estate and Finance.

Qualified candidates must have an earned Ph.D. in Real Estate, Finance, Economics or a closely related discipline by the start of the appointment and a commitment to conduct high quality, high impact research leading to publications in top outlets in Real Estate, Finance, and Economics. Candidates are expected to demonstrate promise for innovative teaching at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Candidates will be evaluated according to their research potential, the overall quality of their academic preparation and scholarly work, evidence of commitment to teaching and skills as a teacher, and strength of recommendations.

We will be interviewing at the AFA meetings in Philadelphia, PA. For a detailed position description and online application instructions, go to www.sujobopps.com (#073276). Cover letter, resume, job market paper and three professional references must be submitted on the website. Only completed applications will be considered. In order to ensure full consideration, applications must be received by November 20, 2017.

The school seeks candidates whose research, teaching, or service has prepared them to contribute to our commitment to diversity and inclusion in higher education. Syracuse University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.
