Responsibilities

The position responsibilities include conducting quality research in the area of Real Estate, teaching Real Estate Management courses, and contributing to the academic responsibilities of the department, the faculty, and the university.

Qualifications

This position is directed to candidates who have a PhD in Real Estate, Finance, Economics or another Real Estate-related field. Successful candidates will have demonstrated evidence of high quality teaching, an emerging or an established and strong record of research excellence in Real Estate, including evidence of peer reviewed publications/contributions and evidence of establishing and maintaining an independent, externally funded research program. Successful applicants will also demonstrate the capacity for collaboration and collegial service. Preferred areas of research interest would be commercial real estate, residential real estate, REITs, sustainability in real estate, real estate development, real estate finance or real estate valuation. Candidates must have a demonstrated commitment to upholding the values of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion as it pertains to service, teaching, and scholarly, research, or creative activities.

Equity at Ryerson University

At the intersection of mind and action, Ryerson is on a transformative path to become Canada's leading comprehensive innovation university. Integral to this path is the placement of equity, diversity and inclusion as fundamental to our institutional culture. Our current academic plan outlines each as core values and we work to embed them in all that we do.

Ryerson University welcomes those who have demonstrated a commitment to upholding the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion and will assist us to expand our capacity for diversity in the broadest sense. In addition, to correct the conditions of disadvantage in employment in Canada, we encourage applications from members of groups that have been historically disadvantaged and marginalized, including First Nations, Metis and Inuit peoples, Indigenous peoples of North America, racialized persons, persons with disabilities, and those who identify as women and/or 2SLGBTQ+. Please note that all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

As an employer, we are working towards a people first culture and are proud to have been selected as one of Canada's Best Diversity Employers and a Greater Toronto's Top Employer for both 2015 and 2016. To learn more about our work environment, colleagues, leaders, students and innovative educational environment, visit www.ryerson.ca, check out @RyersonU, @RyersonHR and @RyersonEDI on Twitter, and visit our LinkedIn company page.
