

May 17-18, 2018, Columbus, OH

It is our pleasure to invite your submissions to the 2nd Annual PhD Conference on Real Estate and Housing, which takes place on May 17 – 18, 2018, in Columbus, OH. The purpose of the conference is to provide a platform for doctoral students to showcase and develop their research through high quality discussion and audience feedback. PhD students whose papers are selected will receive a travel grant of up to $500. Best paper and best discussion prizes will also be awarded.

TOPICS: The program committee welcomes draft paper submissions from doctoral students examining a wide array of real estate and housing topics related to policy, practice and theory. Submissions may address issues including, but not limited to:

- Real estate finance and economics
- Urban and regional economics
- Housing policy
- Housing and community development
- Housing affordability
- Real estate law

We invite studies from all disciplines including finance, business, public policy, sociology, economics, urban planning, geography, demographics, law, criminology, and public health.

PAPER SUBMISSION: Submissions must consist of unpublished working research papers that are single-authored or co-authored with faculty or other students. The deadline for proposal submissions is February 7, 2018. Accepted authors will be given an opportunity to revise their draft prior to final paper submission deadline of April 30, 2018. Please submit your proposals via the conference website.
