

UNIVERSITY OF READING

We are seeking to appoint an Assistant Professor (Lecturer in UK universities) or Associate Professor to further strengthen the Real Estate Economics area in our Department and improve our competitiveness globally. The role will require the successful candidate to publish world leading research in highly ranked journals. You will also contribute to the teaching across a range of postgraduate and undergraduate programmes.

Application deadline: 22 January 2018 (5pm GMT).

Interviews to be held on 20 February 2018.

The successful candidate will be expected to take a position by September 2018.

Requirements:

- A PhD in economics, finance or real estate
- Ability to carry out high quality research and teaching
- A good understanding of one or more areas related to real estate economics
- As part of your application process, you are also required to submit an electronic copy of a paper that you consider best represents your research work. This may be published or unpublished.

The link to a full job description can be found here:

<https://jobs.reading.ac.uk/displayjob.aspx?jobid=2379>

For further information or discussion, please contact Cathy Hughes (Head of Department, cathy.hughes@reading.ac.uk) or Eamonn D'Arcy (Associate Professor in Real Estate Economics, p.e.darcy@reading.ac.uk)

To formally apply, please visit www.reading.ac.uk/jobs or contact Human Resources, University of Reading, Whiteknights, PO Box 217, Reading RG6 6AH. Telephone +44(0)118 378 6771 (voicemail)

Please quote the relevant reference number. The University is committed to having a diverse and inclusive workforce and we welcome applications for job-share, part-time and flexible working arrangements which will be considered in line with business needs.