

May 17-18, 2018, Columbus, OH

It is our pleasure to invite your submissions to the 2nd Annual PhD Conference on Real Estate and Housing, which takes place on May 17 – 18, 2018, in Columbus, OH. The conference is intended as a platform to showcase and develop the work of doctoral students through constructive discussions and sharing of ideas. PhD students whose paper is selected for presentation will receive a stipend of up to $500 to cover accommodation and travel expenses. Best paper and best discussant prizes will also be awarded.

TOPICS: The program committee welcomes draft paper submissions from doctoral students examining a wide array of real estate and housing topics related to policy, practice and theory. Submissions may address issues including, but not limited to:

- real estate finance and economics
- urban and regional economics
- housing policy
- housing and community development
- housing affordability
- real estate law

We invite studies from all disciplines including finance, business, public policy, sociology, economics, urban planning, geography, demographics, law, criminology, and public health.

PAPER SUBMISSION: Submissions must consist of unpublished draft research papers that may be single-authored, or co-authored with faculty or other students. The deadline for proposal submissions is February 7, 2018. Accepted authors will be given an opportunity to revise their draft prior to final paper submission deadline on April 30, 2018. Please submit your proposals via the conference portal or through the conference website.
