

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Assistant Professor of Finance

Department of Accounting, Economics, Finance, & Real Estate

Full-time, Tenure-track faculty, Position #F0028

Longwood University, a historic public liberal arts institution and host of the 2016 U.S. Vice Presidential Debate, invites candidates to apply for Assistant Professor of Finance.

A comprehensive university with a strong liberal arts foundation, Longwood has a distinctive mission to develop citizen leaders who are prepared to make positive contributions to the common good. Longwood recently celebrated its 175th anniversary and is the third-oldest public university in Virginia, behind William & Mary and the University of Virginia.

Longwood is part of the proud tradition of higher education in the Commonwealth of Virginia. Roughly one hour's drive from Lynchburg, Charlottesville and Richmond, Longwood is located in the historic two-college community of Farmville, at a historic crossroads near where the Civil War drew to a close and powerful strides in the civil rights movement began. Today, Longwood has more than 5,000 undergraduate and graduate students and more than 34,000 alumni. It maintains affiliations with the neighboring Robert Russa Moton Museum of civil rights history and the Longwood Center for Visual Arts, one of just a few dozen nationally accredited university art museums. A member of the Big South Conference, Longwood competes at the NCAA Division I level. Longwood's 26th President, W. Taylor Reveley IV, took office in June 2013.

The Department of Accounting, Economics, Finance, and Real Estate in the College of Business and Economics at Longwood University is seeking qualified applicants for a position at the level of Assistant Professor of Finance. To be considered for this position, applicants should have a Ph.D. in Finance or related field from an AACSB accredited institution. Candidates with interests in all areas of finance will be considered with a preference for those with an interest in Real Estate. Online teaching experience considered a plus. Evidence of strong research and teaching potential is expected and required for tenure.

Duties: To teach undergraduate and MBA courses in Finance, and to perform duties assigned by the Dean of the College of Business and Economics and Chair of the Department.

The College of Business and Economics is accredited by AACSB and offers programs at the undergraduate and MBA levels. For more information, please visit <http://www.longwood.edu/business/index.html>.

Commonwealth of Virginia benefits accompany this position. A successful fingerprint based criminal background investigation is required. Review of applications will begin immediately. Candidates should submit a letter of application and vitae (indicate position F0028) to:
